NATIONAL CENTRE FOR FINANCIAL EDUCATION

FINANCIAL AWARENESS AND CONSUMER TRAINING (FACT)

Financial Literacy Programme for Graduate and Post-Graduate Students

» This is an initiative of the NCFE to provide financial education to young graduates and post-graduates on topics relevant to them, which would positively impact their financial well-being.

» Globally, youth are becoming financial consumers early in their lives than ever before and are making financial decisions that can have lasting consequences.

» Before they graduate and join the workforce and take on more financial obligations for the first time, our youth can benefit from learning how to set financial goals, avoid problems, and know where to go for help when they need it.

» A Certificate of appreciation would be given to the participating college for implementing the FACT programme.

Learn how to set and achieve financial goals and also know about borrowing principles.

Learn about the different digital modes of payment and know how to safeguard your personal data during online transactions.

Learn responsible use of credit card and how to avoid impulse buying.

Learn how to manage your income and expenses and how to invest in the right financial instruments (Bonds, Equity, Mutual Funds, Term Deposits, etc.)
