PROGRAM REPORT: LITERARY FEST 2022

Literary Fest conducted by Department of English on 25th April, 2022 Monday at 10:30 AM. The chief guests are our Principal Dr. V. Vijayalakshmi and Vice-principal Mrs. N. Mythili. They lightened the lamp and our program was started with Thamizhthai Vaazhuthu sung by our students. We encouraged our students by conducting various competitions like Drama, mime, Role play; soliloquy, Face painting, Dance and song. Our principal has given a speech about the importance of English and inspired the students with her motivational speech. The event aimed to encourage literary activities among the students and provide a platform for them to showcase their literary skills. Students took the active part in organizing as well as participating various events and competitions. The literary festival proved to be a great learning experience for all the students, who not only improved their literary skills but also gained confidence and exposure. It was an excellent opportunity for the students to come together and appreciate the power of words and literature. The fest concluded with the distribution of prizes to the winners of the various competitions.
